

ACCESS

(ALTERNATIVE CAREER CHOICES FOR EQUITABLE STUDENT SUCCESS)

Parent organization: Lane Community College Women's Program

Web address: <http://www.lanecc.edu/stuser/womprog/access1.htm>

Grade level or ages served: Community college, high school, and middle school girls

Overview: This program allows women to explore technical and trades careers by providing:

- Information on Lane's professional technical programs
- Mentorship Programs
- Women in Information Technology monthly networking group
- Individual Advising
- Information on apprenticeship programs
- Panels of women in non-traditional careers
- Networking groups
- Job Site Visits

The program also offers opportunities for middle and high school girls to explore non-traditional careers by providing:

- Program Tours
- Classroom presentations
- Resource and referral

(Source: website)

Subjects covered: technical fields

Size of program: NA

Where offered: Lane Community College, Eugene

Time spent by students: NA

Partners/Sponsors: NA

Materials available on web and/or purchase: NA

Training for teachers, facilitators, volunteers, leaders is: NA

Cost structure & Funding: NA